New Year-New Faces

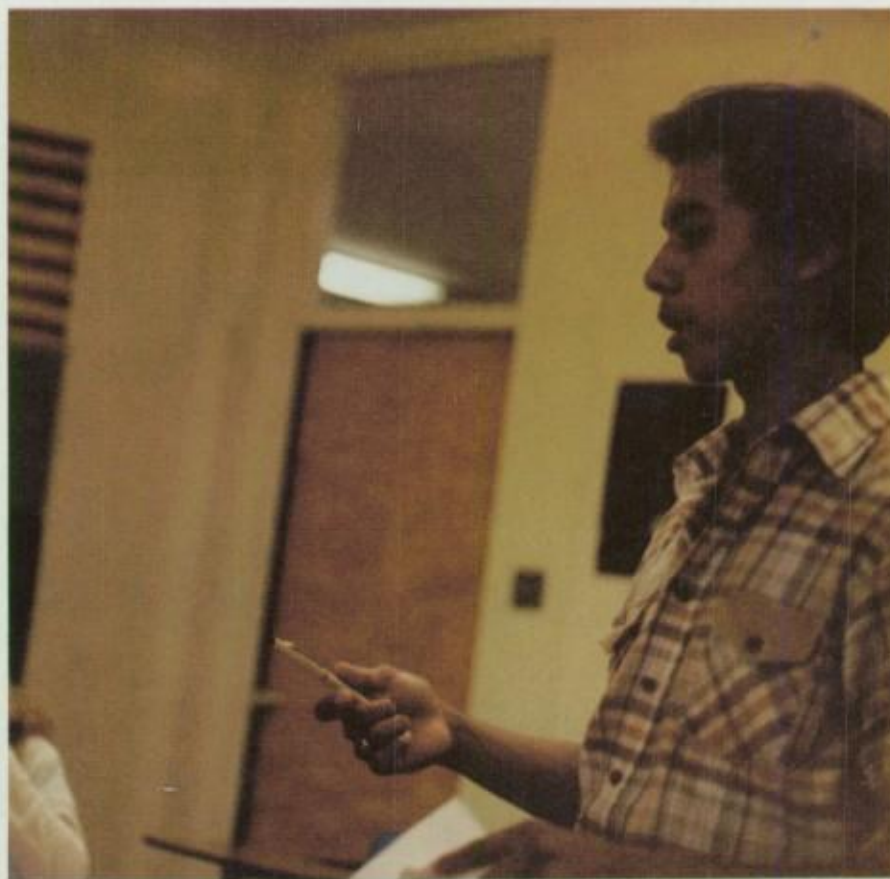

Senior Spirit

Spirit can be shown in many ways, and the more it is shown the more contagious it becomes. This year's senior class has lit the spirit fire throughout the school. Their dedication and example to the cause of spirit proves the class of "81" has just begun

Pep assemblies, washing the Bulldog and singing the school song all added up to make the word school mean more than a building

SPIRIT IS "CONTAGIOUS"

Royalty

Homecoming Royalty, Tari Srevenson, Steve Craver, Kathy Mellott, Perri Castro, Queen, Brenda Williams, Brian Winters, Toni Esquibel, King, Sean Phillips, Susan Brock, Chuck Casson. Below, Brenda Williams and Sean Phillips share their excitement with each other.

Homecoming 1980, was a very exciting thing as it is each year at K.H.S. Everyone awaits the half-time activities when the Homecoming Queen is announced. This year, hopefully, a new tradition was started at K.H.S. A Homecoming King, as well as Queen was chosen. The candidates for King and Queen were; top left, Brenda Williams and her escort, Brian Winters. Top right, Toni Esquibel and her escort, Sean Phillips. Middle left, Kathy Mellott and her escort, Perri Castro. Middle right, Susan Brock and her escort, Chuck Casson. At left, Tari Strevenson and her escort, Steve Craver.

Floats With Spirit

Cars, busses, trucks, and floats all added up to a wonderful Homecoming. The spirit of the floats resembles the spirit of the students. The winning floats were; Seniors, first place with their winning theme "Cage the Panthers." Juniors came in second with their theme "Going on a Panther Hunt." The Freshmen came in third with their theme "Another One Bites the Dust." "Strew the Panthers", was the theme of the Sophomore float which came in fourth place. Opposite page; The 1980 Varsity Football Team. Don't these people look familiar? Tom and Barry acting, normal??? Marching Band 1980 does a great job. Spirited downs.

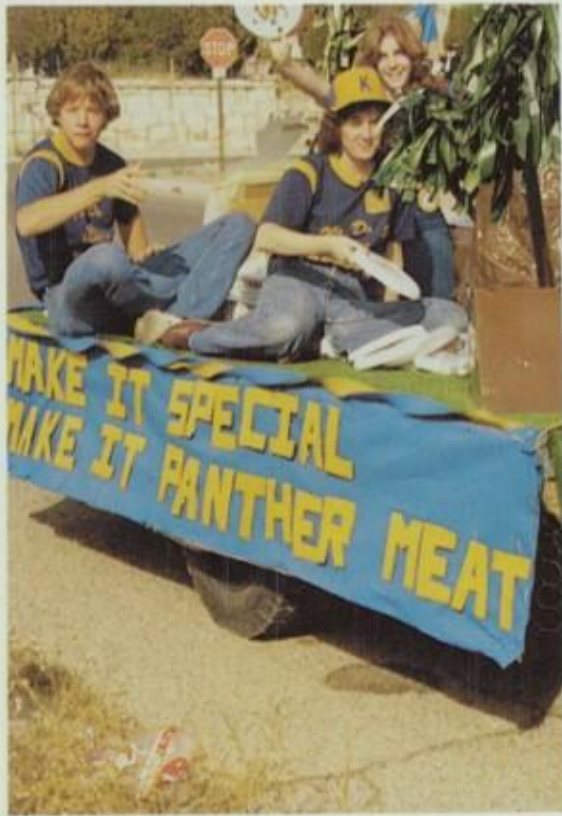

Then Came The Football Game

The homecoming festivities were highlighted with one of the Bulldogs most impressive and important victories of the season. The final score was 33-6 over a highly routed Peoria Panther team. This victory guaranteed the Bulldogs a third trip to state in three years and gave the packed stands many opportunities to show their spirit.

FAUCULTY

In Memory Of

William H. (Bill) Johnson, Sr.

Born August 28, 1920 in Cardin, Oklahoma

Died January 7, 1981 in Kingman, Arizona

Mr. Johnson was a person who dedicated his life to serving others. He was especially interested in young people. He spent 29 years reaching high school students, the last 14, here at Kingman High School. He further showed interest in young people by sponsoring the local Key Club.

Mr. Johnson was also involved in the community. He was a member of The Veterans of Foreign Wars, The American Legion, and Kiwanis, and served as their secretary for 7 years.

He was an excellent teacher. Not only did he provide extra help for those who had difficulties learning, but he also challenged those who found everything easy.

Mr. Johnson wasn't only educated with knowledge from schooling, but he was well versed in many different aspects of life. Mr. Johnson had many ideas and stories of his life that were interesting and he was willing to share it with others.

As members of the student body, we saw Mr. Johnson in a different light than just that of a teacher. He was a sensitive human being and a wonderful person. He helped weigh out the pros and cons for projects and he knew what he was talking about.

It was apparent he was a warm and caring person. You could tell how much love he had for his wife and family.
